Notes:

1a. Herbert Daniel Jehan. Was Mentioned in Jutland Despatch of 22nd August 1916, published by Admiralty on 15th September 1916. Citation: Recommended for good service in action. Is stationed in IRON DUKE's lower top as Principal control officer of the 6-inch guns. These guns were employed during the action in repelling two attacks of German TBD's on our battle fleet, and were controlled with coolness and good judgement, as a result of which one German TBD was seen to sink.

1b. Herbert Daniel Jehan. Awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, Citation: For distinguished services in HMS IRON DUKE. London Gazette No. 31445. Admiralty 10th July, 1919.

2. Charles Filleul. Awarded Distinguished Service Medal (London Gazette No. 29972 dated 6 March 1917) for his services and actions on HMS SHARK. A posthumous award of the Victoria Cross was made to SHARK'S Commander Loftus William Jones R.N. In addition to lose his life during SHARK's ship action that day was Walter Sly.

3. Thomas Joseph Jehan. Awarded the Medaille Militaire by the President of the French Republic for services in the Battle of Jutland. ADM 171/172, and London Gazette 29751 of 15th September 1916.

4. William Philip Le Sauteur. Awarded the Medaille Militaire by the President of the French Republic for services in the Battle of Jutland. ADM 171/172, and London Gazette 29751 of 15th September 1916.

5. Marshall William Taylor. One of just 20 survivors from the break-up and sinking of HMS QUEEN MARY caused by explosions resulting from the salvos fired by the SMS SEYDLITZ and SMS DERFLINGER.

6. WM Amy, WB de Ste Croix, , FJ Foney, RF Hacken, CSB Mallet, EJ Rogers, A Smith, H de P Taylor and AG Watts were to lose their lives within the week on 5th June 1916 with the sinking of HMS HAMPSHIRE of Marwick Head the Mainland Island of Orkney, as she colided with a mine(s) laid by German U-Boats.

7. One Officer and four men who happened to be born from outside of the Channel Islands have been included, they were all Killed in Action, and have very strong family links to the Islands for various reasons.

They are: T.A. Duffey, P.N. Kendall, W.H. Luxon, P.R. Malet de Carteret & A.E. Wakley. They are denoted by their adopted Island in brackets.

8. Final note: This roll is not an exhaustive search of all naval seamans service papers of Channel Islanders who served at Jutland. There are likely to be many more not yet noted or missed to date. Should you be aware of any furthur C.I. BlueJackets that are deserving to be included.
