

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE DAY

By

MAJOR-GENERAL D.E. CAYLEY, C.M.G.

COMMANDING 29th DIVISION

In bidding Goodbye to the ROYAL GUERNSEY LIGHT INFANTRY on their departure from the 29th Division, I wish to place on record my great regret at their withdrawal. During the 6 months the Regiment has been with the Division, they have constantly displayed high qualities of courage and resolution. Both at CAMBRAI and in the recent fighting around HAZEBROUCK, nothing could have been finer than their conduct. Their record, though short, is one on which they and their fellow islanders can look back upon with the greatest pride.

I wish Lieut. Col. De HAVILLAND and all RANKS all good fortune in the future.

24th APRIL 1918.

D. E. Cayley
Major-General,
Commanding 29th Division.
