

Les Îles de la Manche ~ The Great War Roll of Honour and Service to Submariners

†	Surname	Name(s)	Rating	Continuous Service No.	H.M.S./M. Submarine	H.M.S. Submarine Casualty Details	Born	Age	Date Died	Parish	Island
†	ALEXANDRE	Alfred	Petty Officer 1st Class	208184 (Port.)	C.33	Submarine C.33 Mined off Great Yarmouth whilst operating with Armed Trawler MALTA on 4th August 1915	10 January 1884	31	05 August 1915	St. Helier	Jersey
	ARNOLD	Henry Walter (Walker)	Leading Seaman	189740 (Port.)	C.38 & L.1		18 January 1881			St. Martin	Guernsey
	BAKER (R.A.N.)	William	Able Seaman	J.18152 (Port.)	C.6	Transferred to Royal Australian Navy (R.A.N.)	01 August 1896				Jersey
†	BARTER	Henry Joseph	Able Seaman	230790 (Port.)	E.15 (P.O.W.), Yard No. 439	Accidentally drowned whilst a Prisoner of War held in Turkey, after loss of Submarine E.15 in the Dardanelles 17th April 1915.	15 April 1888	28	11 May 1916	St. Helier	Jersey
	BEARD	Joseph Alfred	E.R.A. 1st Class	M.2598 (Port.)	G.1, L.19, L.22, L.25 & L.23		08 September 1895			St. Helier	Jersey
	BEAUCHAMP D.S.M.	James Francis	Leading Seaman	211109 (Port.)	E.23	HMS PYRAMUS Naval Brigade Landing Party Action for DSM. (Awarded DSM 19th Nov. 1915) Persian Gulf Land operations. Later served in Submarine E.23. from PLATYPUS	16 November 1894			St. Peter	Guernsey
	CARREL	Philip John	Stoker 1st Class	K.21262 (Dev.)	E.43, K.15 & K6	Served on board E.43 after the incident of 19th January 1917 Submarine E.43 survived a collision with Submarine E.36 being sadly lost all crew.	29 June 1894			St. Peter Port	Guernsey
†	COUTANCHE	Stanley Vernon	Leading Seaman	229936 (Port.)	E.3	First Allied Submarine to be sunk during WW1 in an enemy action underwater attack by Submarine U-27, two Jersey men along with all crew lost.	05 January 1888	26	18 October 1914	St. Helier	Jersey
†	de CAUDEVILLE	Thomas Batiste	Stoker 1st Class	K.20787 (Port.)	E.50	Submarine E.50 Lost on Duty, Struck a mine near the south of Dogger Bank Light Vessel. Loss of all crew.	12 May 1892	25	31 January 1918	St. Peter Port	Guernsey
	FOSTER "FORSTER"	Arthur Hurrell	Air Mechanic 1st Class, R.F.R., R.N.A.S. to R.A.F.	230735 (Port.)	Submarine Service	11th July 1915 discharged from Submarine Service in order that he may join R.N.A.S.	02 August 1887			St. Peter Port	Guernsey
	GALLIE	Edwin Daniel Amos	C.E.R.A. 1st Class	268727 (Port.)	G.14	Mentioned by Order in Council for Promotion and Advancement as a Mark of Appreciation for his conduct at the Wreck of the S.S. STELLA, Lost at Alderney on 30th March 1899.	06 January 1873			St. Helier	Jersey
	GILLSON (R.A.N.)	Thomas William Henry	Petty Officer	240525 (Port.)	C.30, C.17 & H.47	Transferred to Royal Australian Navy (R.A.N.)	06 March 1888			St. Peter Port	Guernsey
	GOSLING	Charles Emile	Leading Stoker	295949 (Port.)	D.2 & E.15	Submarine E.15 ran aground at Kephez whilst attempting to make a passage through the Dardanelles into the Sea of Marmora on 17th April 1915. After running aground the submarine was shelled by the Turkish Forts in the area. In the shelling the Commanding Officer and five of the crew were killed and a further six were wounded. Of those that survived the shelling (and who were taken Prisoner) another eight died as Prisoners of War. Charles E. Gosling survived his time as Prisoner of War and was repatriated home in 1918	26 November 1881			St. Helier	Jersey
†	GUILBERT (R.A.N.)	Thomas Martin	Petty Officer	208663 (Port.) 8279 (R.A.N.)	A.E.1. (H.M.A.S.)	Lent to Royal Australian Navy. First Allied submarine loss of WW1 and First Channel Islander Submariner Lost on 14 Sep 1914, A.E.1. (Battle Honour RABAUL 1914)	25 November 1883	32	14 September 1914	St. Peter Port	Guernsey
†	LE BOUTILLIER	John	E.R.A. 4th Class	M.22714 (Chat.)	E.14	Killed in Action in the Dardanelles, when HMS E.14 was sunk by Turkish gunfire	01 February 1888	29	28 January 1918	Rondin, Trinity	Jersey
	MATTHEWS	Frank	C.E.R.A. 2nd Class	271934 (Chat.)	E.2 & L.5		14 July 1889			St. Martin	Guernsey
	MATTHEWS	William Henry	Able Seaman	216454 (Port.)	E.7	On 4th Sep 1915 Submarine E.7 Whilst attempting a passage through the Dardanelles into the Sea of Marmora for a second patrol when the starboard propeller became entangled in the anti-submarine nets at Nagara. Submarine surfaced and crew all taken Prisoner of War.	04 December 1884			St. Peter Port	Guernsey
†	QUEROTRET	Peter	Able Seaman	210665 (Port.)	E.3	First allied Submarine to be sunk during WW1 in an enemy action underwater attack by Submarine U-27, two Jersey men along with all crew lost.	03 December 1884	28	18 October 1914	St. Peters	Jersey
†	RUAUX	Ernest William	Leading Seaman	205600 (Port.)	E.18	Submarine E.18 struck a German mine in the Baltic of the coast of Estonia.	17 March 1883	33	11 June 1916	St. Martin	Jersey
†	TACHON	Philip (Philippe)	Stoker 1st Class	K.20794 (Port.)	J.6	Drowned 15th October 1918 in Collision with Q-Ship CYMRIC	13 May 1895	26	15 October 1918	Gorey	Jersey

H.M.S. DOLPHIN.

